LUTHERANISM 101: A new member class will be starting in the new year. If you or you know of someone interested in becoming a member of Trinity or just wanting to learn more about the Lutheran faith, please see Pastor James.

PAUL OEXEMAN: Paul Oexeman died in his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on Monday, February 4, 2019. He received a Christian Celebration of Life service at Trinity Lutheran Church in Nashville, IL on Friday, February 8, 2019, with Rev. Aaron Kotila and Rev. James Miller officiating. Interment followed in the Trinity Lutheran Cemetery. “And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.” Romans 8:17 (KJV) Paul’s Confirmation Verse 2019 FLOWER CHART is in the foyer. Please consider signing up to supply a fresh arrangement for the altar for a weekend in 2019. You may use this opportunity to commemorate a special event in your life or “just because.” Please pick up a green card by the flower chart to help you with your floral donation.

NATIONAL LUTHERAN SCHOOLS WEEK COLLECTION: TSJ is collecting new Kitchen and Bath towels, potholders, and kitchen utensils until February 11th. Humanitri, an organization in St. Louis, is currently renovating a unit to house four families. They are gathering household items to assist those families as they get a fresh start. If you would like to contribute, please drop off your items in the school office. Thank you for your generosity.

FLOWERS IN THE WORSHIP AREA are from the funeral of Paul Oexeman. “Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life.” Rev. 2:10 (ESV)

LUTHERANS FOR LIFE: February 10 “[T]here’s more . . . more to life than sensual pleasures, more to love than the shriveled-up version that has captivated our Western imaginations. So today, ask yourself, ‘How am I responding to so great an expression of love as what God has shown us?’ Valentinus’s response was to give up his own life. For us, too, a kind of ‘death’ is required—a death to self, a death to the desires that our culture treats as ultimate. Now of course, guys, none of this lets you off the hook with your wives. So don’t forget the flowers.” John Stonestreet with Roberto Rivera, www.breakpoint.org – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

DIAPER WITH LOVE MONTHLY SPONSOR: The Board of Mission and Outreach has given away close to 100 packages of diapers in our beginning months and hope to see this number grow. The response in the community has been wonderful. Many members have donated diapers and wipes and others have donated funds to help purchase diapers. If you are a Thrivent member, we can use your help in another way. By developing monthly Thrivent sponsorships, we hope to fund Diapered with Love throughout the year. All it takes is for a member to apply for a Thrivent grant for one month of the year, if twelve members do this, we will receive $250.00 each month. If you would be interested in sponsoring a month of Diapered with Love, please contact Carol Meinert at 618-314-2545 to schedule a month. Carol or Kathy Reu can help you apply for a grant and walk you through it. It only takes a few minutes. Please prayerfully consider this. Next Distribution: February 23rd 11:00 am-12pm

PERFECT SUNDAY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE: The following children had perfect Sunday School attendance for January 2019: Dayton Wesseln, Mackenna Wesseln, Luke Welte, and Lexi Welte.

Please return the bottle even if you cannot contribute at this time, as these bottles are an expense for the organization. We have 14 of the original 50 bottles returned to date.

SOMETHING NEW IN THE PEW!

Since we were children waiting to toss the coin into the offering plate, we have considered the act of putting our offering into the plate as a form of worship.

Our members have begun to use the opportunity of having their offering automatically withdrawn from their bank account as a convenience.

Electronic giving is a huge advantage but can leave some with an empty feeling when the collection plate passes. That form of worship seems suddenly gone.

There is now a way for those who give electronically to participate in the offering by tossing in the new laminated card in the rack in back of the hymnals in the pew.

Just toss it in. The elders will sort them out while putting the offerings away after the service and they will be returned to their storage in the pew.

There are also instructions for enrolling in electronic giving on the card as well as a short prayer on the rear of the card.

*God Bless all the stewards of his gifts,
The Stewardship Committee*

GOD LOVES A CHEERFUL GIVER

The Gospel enables us to respond to God's love in thoughtful, decisive, giving back to God in our offerings. St. Paul says, "The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver" (2 Corinthians 9:6-7). Have you ever sat down and prayed for God to open up your heart to know His will in your giving? Let us pray that we would not become ho-hum in our attendance on the Lord's Day or give begrudgingly. God graciously includes us in His kingdom and the Spirit enables the kingdom and will of God be done in us. Let us take the time to ask God to instruct us in our giving. Pray about the joyous activity of managing all life's resources for God's purposes. Remember, God loves a cheerful giver. Please consider using our ONLINE Giving to continue to support the operating expenses of Trinity Lutheran Church and Trinity-St. John Lutheran School as well as the many ministries that take place here. It is so easy! Just type in trinity-nashville.org it's just that simple!

“HEAR THE WORD OF THE LORD”

NOTES ON OUR GOSPEL: Jesus Comforts His People and Builds Up His Church by the Ministry of His Gospel. When Isaiah “saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up,” he was overcome with an awareness of his sin and “unclean lips” (Is. 6:1, 5). But the Lord atoned for his sin, took away his guilt and sanctified his lips with “a burning coal” from the altar (Is. 6:6–7). Not only was he rescued from death, but he was called and sent as a prophet of the Lord’s Word (Is. 6:8–9). Similarly, when Simon Peter and his companions “enclosed a large number of fish” at the Word of Jesus, he humbled himself and said, “Depart from me, for I am a sinful man” (Luke 5:4–8). But Jesus comforted Simon, called him to discipleship and declared that he would be “catching men” (Luke 5:10–11). So in the Office of the Ministry, the Church remains the little boat from which Jesus teaches His people (Luke 5:3). Thus are we instructed in the faith, so that we say “Amen” and return thanks with heart, mind, tongue and life. For the preaching of Christ Jesus is a manifestation of the Holy Spirit, by which He builds up His Church on earth (1 Cor. 14:12–19).

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS: Feb. 10 (The Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany). Luke 5:5 – “And Simon answered, ‘Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets.’ ” Peter’s words show both exasperation and trust. He’s tired. He tried his best and failed. But he is still ready to trust the Lord’s word – and act on it. Our stewardship is also a matter of trusting the Lord’s word ... and acting on it.
